

Rachel Brozenske, SPHR Bio

Rachel Brozenske, Vice President of Allison Partners, Rachel serves as adjunct faculty for the University of Virginia and the Federal Executive Institute and has designed and conducted training for a variety of public, private and nonprofit clients.

Rachel earned an M.B.A. from the Darden Graduate School of Business at the University of Virginia. Her areas of expertise include organizational design, strategy articulation, leadership development, professional coaching, group facilitation, performance management, competency assessment, training design, change management and ideation techniques.