

PAULA PIERCE MS, PMP, HCS, BMC

Paula Pierce is a recognized consultant, coach and speaker with over 20 years experience helping organizations solve their operational problems, change their performance trajectory and realize success on their terms. She currently serves as the CEO and principal transformation strategist at Peridona Strategies LLC.

Ms. Pierce is passionate about helping organizations and individuals discover their true value and operate from a mindset of service and authenticity. She believes that true satisfaction and success come from using one's talents to enhance the lives of others and that organizations have that same duty on a larger scale.

Prior to establishing Peridona Strategies, Ms. Pierce served in senior roles at Booz Allen Hamilton and Robbins-Gioia where provided consultative services in talent strategy, change management and culture optimization.

Ms. Pierce holds a B.S. degree in Communication and a M.S. degree in Management. In 2007, National-Louis University recognized her with the prestigious Distinguished Alumni Award for excellence in community leadership, humanitarian service and career achievement. Ms. Pierce is certified in project management and human capital strategy, licensed in the Prosci method of change management and experienced in The Grove graphic facilitation method.

Ms. Pierce co-leads the organization development book review special interest group for the Chesapeake Bay Organization Development Network and serves on the annual conference planning committee.
